HERBERT P. BEAR

AGE: Unknown
SPECIES: Giant Polar Bear
OCCUPATION: Resident Bad Guy
SKILLS: Expert Troublemaker
ACCOMPLICES: Klutzy
LOCATION: Secret Lair

IMAGE DATABASE:
HERBERT

BACKGROUND...

Herbert is a very peculiar polar bear because he hates the cold. He left his home in the Arctic Circle on an iceberg, looking for a warmer place to live. We think he sailed straight across the world by mistake and ended up in Club Penguin. This is probably why he is so grumpy.

HIS MISSION...

TO MELT ALL THE SNOW AND ICE ON CLUB PENGUIN, STOP ALL THE FUN AND CREATE A BORING ISLAND WHERE HE IS IN CHARGE!

WE CANNOT LET THIS HAPPEN!

SECRETS

Although agents found a tuft of white fur in "Case of the Missing Coins," they didn't get to meet Herbert until "Questions For a Clap."

[CLASSIFIED]

DANGER RATING:

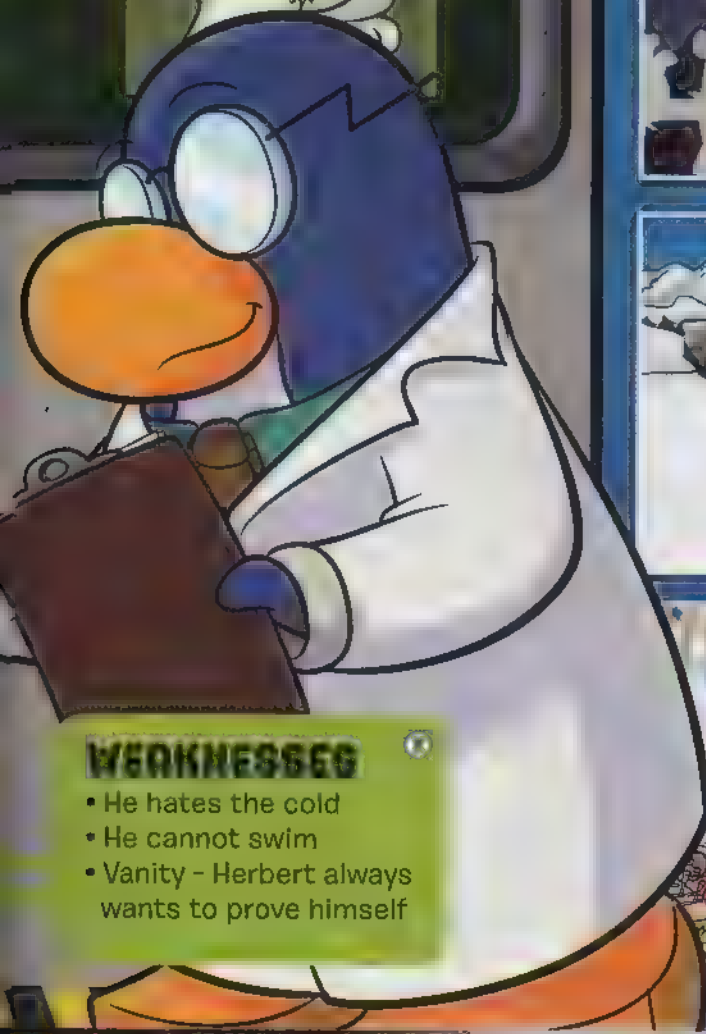

LOW HIGH

MEGA x INFINITY(+2)

Herbert has caused many disasters including avalanches and earthquakes. He nearly sank the whole island during Operation: Herbert's Revenge.

ESQUIRE

HERBERT'S TOP 5 DASTARDLY DEVICES!

WEAKNESSES

- He hates the cold
- He cannot swim
- Vanity - Herbert always wants to prove himself

Earthquake Driller

Herbert stole parts from the Clock Tower to make this giant mechanical mole! Its drill was so powerful it caused huge earthquakes on Club Penguin. Luckily Herbert got stuck so he had to abandon his evil plan.

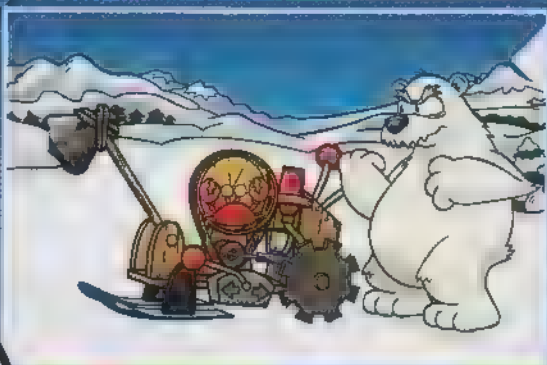

Popcorn Bomb

Everyone loves popcorn, but even you couldn't munch this much! With a simple device made from a chair, a stolen Spy Phone and lots of corn, Herbert destroyed the old PSA HQ and covered the island in a crunchy yellow carpet!

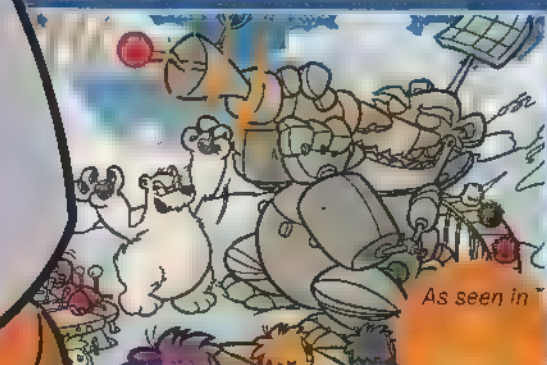

Cream Soda Sticky Bomb of Doom

Herbert designed this bomb to spread sticky cream soda over the entire island! But a white puffle bounced on the detonator and exploded it, soaking Herbert's science lab and causing a puffle party!

Mechanical Woodchopper

This was the first invention Herbert built! He made it from broken pieces of Gary's Test Sled and it was designed to chop down the Ski Lodge. But thanks to the EPF it fell into the Outback Pond and hasn't been seen since.

Pied Piper Machine

This device hypnotised all the puffles on Club Penguin! Herbert then planned to use the static electricity in their fur to power a massive electrocannon! Luckily Gary and the EPF saved the day.

As seen in

A

Air Conditioner 1000

Gary invented this to keep him cool. I think Gary's really cool already, so why bother?

Air Conditioner 3000

But the latest version can freeze anything - from snow sculptures to last week's shrimp pizza! Mmm, pizza!

Alaska

This penguin spends half her time searching for rare puffles, half baby-sitting Yukon, and half... Wait, how many halves is that?

Alien Mask

Some penguins say that aliens are out of this world, but I think they're just OK. You can buy this mask for 300 coins from the Stage.

Amulet

Sensei says this amulet is really powerful if you get all the parts, but it's missing snow... Silly - there's snow everywhere!

April Fools Party

My bestest time of the year! Anything goes at The April Fools Party so long as it's silly, upside down, back to front or in another dimension!

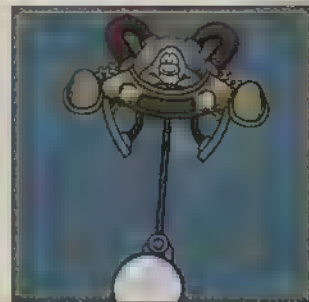

Aprons

Aprons let you do cool stuff, like flip pizza or pour coffee. If only there was a 'catch Herbert' apron...

Aqua Grabber

Gary invented this submarine to rescue the Migrator when it sank after a storm. One day I hope I can invent something amazing too. Maybe an automatic tea stirrer for Aunt Arctic?

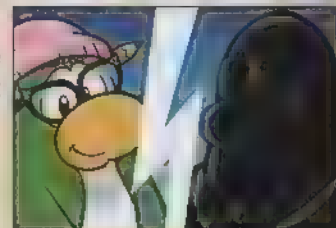

Astro-Barrier

This retro mini-game is in the Arcade. Blast the alien spaceships but don't run out of ammo!

SECRETS
Like a challenge? Press 1, 2 or 3 on the main game screen and you will jump to level 10, 20 or 30!

Aunt Arctic

Newspaper editor, puffle fan, drinker of tea... Aunt Arctic is really busy. REALLY BUSY. I think there's more to her than meets the ear. I mean eye. Now, about that automatic tea stirrer...

PENGUINS UNCOVERED!

5

1. He plays ping-pong
2. His favourite music is classical
3. He loves insects
4. He loves Night of the Living Sled
5. He enjoys hunting for ghosts

Interviewer: So Gary, what are you inventing at the moment?

Gary: Aha! Something very clever indeed. You may know that I love pizza. Furthermore, I love coffee. So... coffee flavoured pizza!

Interviewer: Wow, that sounds, um, weird?

Gary: In our taste trials, 1 in 4 penguins say they didn't get a stomach ache.

Interviewer: And the other penguins?

Gary: Stomach ache.

Interviewer: Great! So, um, should we be worried about Herbert heating up the island?

Gary: In a word, yes. In two words, yes indeed. In six words, oh yes indeed, very much so.

Interviewer: What should penguins do if they see Herbert?

Gary: It's vitally important you open your beak and blow a long, loud raspberry at him. We have identified that this makes him really mad.

And when mad, he is prone to irrational mistakes.

"Would you like to see my microchip Migrator?"

Interviewer: So, can you reveal who is the director of the EPF?

Gary: Err, someone that doesn't like coffee-flavoured pizza.

Interviewer: Wow that's exciting! So, when you're not inventing things and saving CP, what do you do to relax?

Gary: I like to build models out of discarded electronics!

Would you like to see my microchip Migrator?

Interviewer: Umm, maybe next time. Thanks Gary!

PUFFLE PLANET

All about puffles, pets, wild animals and caring for our world.

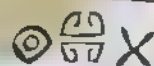

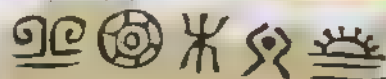

PH's Wilderness Expedition Diary

Day 47:

Today I followed some puffle tracks into a dark cave. When I switched on my torch ... strewth! It lit up a huge painting on the cave wall. It looked a bit like a multi-coloured puffle! The painting was very old. Could this be a clue that rainbow puffles once existed?

Day 48:

I went back to the cave today to have another look at the painting. I took my sketch pad and made this rough drawing:

ANGER Watch

PUFFERFISH

Pufferfish have an amazing trick - they can blow up like a ball to scare off predators. Also, they contain tons of toxic poison, so don't even THINK about making friends with one!

PH's Penguin Profile #1

Name: Rockhopper Penguin

It's easy to spot a Rockhopper Penguin because of their crazy hair style! These penguins are quite small, and mostly live in Antarctica. They get their names for the funny way they hop and jump over rocks.
